Train Travel	Missed/Skipped Station (Prior Preparation)	High	Children will be advised to start moving to the vestibule to prepare for disembarking. The train to Hornsby terminates and there is no need to prepare. On the way to Milsons Point, this would be North Sydney Station. On return to Hornsby, this would be Waitara station. When travelling from Hornsby to Normanhurst, stay in the vestibule as the ride is only one stop. An educator will lead the children off and an educator will be the last off to ensure all children have left the train. Children will stay to one end of the carriage near the doors and not split up amongst the carriage.	Educators and Children directed by Educators	During Excursion	Low

Train Travel	Missed/Skipped Station (Emergency Reason)	High	In the event the train needs to skip a designated station, the RPD will then alight the group at the next station, to then catch the next train back. If this is due to a safety reason with the station close for an emergency, the RPD will organise the group to return to the centre as soon as possible and may need to organise an alternate means of transport, such as a bus, if the station includes those with close access to the centre. Parents will be advised of any changes to the transport plan.	Educators and Children directed by Educators	During Excursion	Low
Train Travel	Missed/Skipped Station	High	In the event the group misses a station, the RPD will organise to alight at the next station and catch the next train back in the opposite direction to that station. If the doors close and children are left behind, the educator will keep in touch with the RPD via phone advising their movements. The educators will organise the children to alight at the next possible station and to then catch a train back in the opposite direction to that station. The rest of the group that managed to alight successfully while wait at the station until return of the rest of the group.	Educators and Children directed by Educators	During Excursion	Low
Station Platform	Injury from trains	High	Children will be directed by educators to remain behind the yellow line while waiting for the train to arrive. Children will be directed to stand to one side of the door to the carriage to allow other passengers out first before embarking. One child per travelator section at a time.	Educators, Children directed by Educators	During Excursion, Prior to Commencement of Activities	Low
Luna Park	Faulty Equipment/Ride Breakdown	High	Luna Park Staff inspect the rides daily. Any ride deemed unsafe will be closed and children advised when a ride is closed. Children will also be advised that if a ride breakdown, that they should wait from instructions from Luna Park Staff and not to disembark the ride. Educators will advise children which rides are closed and assist Luna Park Staff with children where safe to do so and required. Luna Park also keeps up-to-date information on their website about open and closed rides.	Luna Park Staff / Educators, Children directed by Educators	During Excursion, Prior to Commencement of Activities	Low
Luna Park	Ride height restrictions and rules	Moderate	Luna Park has a 3 tiered system based on a child's height. Red Pass (85-105cm), Green Pass (106-129cm) and Yellow Pass (130cm). Most rides yellow pass children can ride on by themselves except the small children's rides behind Coney Island. Most rides require an educator to accompany the green pass child, with 1 child/1 staff ratio except on Tango Train, which allows 2 children/1 staff.	Educators, Children directed by Educators	During Excursion, Prior to Commencement of Activities	Low
Luna Park (Dodgem Cars)	Injury from activity	High	Children will be reminded that a maximum of 2 children per vehicle and that seat belts must be worn at all times. Children will be advised of which direction to drive their car and that the arena is one-way only. If a child gets injured during the activity, they are to put their hands up for assistance as per Luna Park Staff instructions. Educators to assist park staff in spotting out child in need of help.
