Beach Habitat Making	Injury from equipment, uneven steps, slippery surfaces	Extreme	Cones will mark the area where the activity will be occurring. This activity is based purely on land with no water activity involvement. The beach can be access via steps or a ramp. Children will be reminded to use these two entry points and not to jump down off the wall, or climb up the wall. If the stairs are deemed unsafe due to being too slippery or any other hazard on them, children will be guided by educators to use the ramp. When setting up initial activity, Ranger Jamie Staff & Educators will ensure the area setup is away from any beach hazards and a pre-check done. This includes ensuring no blue-bottles, etc have washed up to shore and if any are noticed, to move activity away from that area. As part of check, staff will look out for any other items that may be a hazard. A resuce first aid of drowning people equipment is available adjacent to the beach. The beach area where the activity takes place in enclosed with shark netting along the pier, to minimise entrance of any large marine life.	Educators & Ranger Jamie Staff, reminders to children	Prior to commencement of activity, During Activity	Low

Bug Catching	Bites / Stings from insects etc, tripping hazards, splinters	Extreme	Cones will be set up to mark an area designated for the activity. Children will be reminded to stay within these boundaries. Ranger Jamie staff and Educators will debrief children about safety when searching for and catching bugs. First aid equipment will be brought from the centre. In the case of an emergency, the appropriate procedures will be followed as per the risk assessment. All NWOOSH staff are trained in first aid processes. Holes in the fall tree trunk and gardens will be inspected prior to commencement of the activity by the children. There is a dried-up creek near the bug catching area. In wet weather, this area will be cordoned off as out of use for the activity. Children will be reminded when going into the creek bed, to walk up and down the small mound and not to run.	Educators & Ranger Jamie Staff, reminders to children	Prior to commencement of activity, During Activity	Low
